YACHT INTERIOR INTRODUCTION COURSE - GUEST© I

PYA GUEST PROGRAM

First time in Greece , both FPY (Fair Play Yachting) and PMTC (Piraeus Maritime Training Centre) provide training for interior crew for yachts , superyachts and cruise ships . The yacht industry requires professionalism and specialization . Due to its continual development , lifelong learning has become more relevant . Becoming a student attending our offered courses by PYA (Professional Yachting Association) enables you to explore your interests and develop your skills alongside work and personal commitments . Many people study to develop themselves in their existing role , while others study with a complete change of career in mind . Employers understand that studying part time while managing work and personal commitments shows determination , motivation and a high level of organizational skills that lead you to excellence . So if you want to improve your prospects through getting a qualification , then we will support your every step on the way ! FPY and PMTC have been accredited by PYA to perform the PYA GUEST (Guidelines for Unified Excellence Service Training) program and offer courses on Introduction and Intermediate Level .

You will find included further information and the structure for these two courses .

Let's start working together ! Let's be innovative ! Let's advance Yacht industry !

Best regards,
FPY and PMTC team .
